Autoboss - UK Suppliers, Global Network

AUTOBOSS were founded in 1999 and have rapidly grown to become a global player in the automotive aftermarket.

The company is accredited to the internationally recognised quality standard of ISO 9001:2000.

Acquired by the SPX corporation (www.spx.com) in 2008, Autoboss now enjoy all the benefits of being part of a $6 Billion turnover Fortune 500 company.

This includes the benefit of a global distribution network, an advanced international management team, abundant investing capital, outstanding R & D technical staff, state of the art production facilities, strict quality control systems and excellent after sales service.

AUTOBOSS UK are the official suppliers of Autoboss products for the UK and Ireland, supported by a high class distribution network giving complete national coverage.

We work closely with AUTOBOSS head office on software development, including managing the UK software engineering team to ensure that the AUTOBOSS diagnostic tools are always able to cope with the vehicles you see in the workshop.

Staffed by some of the most experienced technicians in the industry, AUTOBOSS UK are well placed to help you with any of your diagnostic needs.
